Since the married transparency more than the God of Day, and until after 11 o'clock there was no breath of air to move the slumbering dust covering the roadways to the track. As the day advanced gusts of wind raised sickening clouds of dust. The outlook at noon was absolutely and utterly unendurable. To the surprise of everyone the wind luiled, and died away until a mere current of air served to temper the rays of the sun and render the afternoon all that any one could desire. The effect of the wind was seen in the thin attendance at 2 o'clock. But as the wind sighed itself to rest the people began to fill the grand stand, and by 3 o'clock there was a great gathering, and at least 3,000 people wilnessed the races that followed.

The Helena stakes for two year olds, trotting, purse $2,50, $50 each, half forfieit, closed March 9 with ten nominations. Sliver Bow walked over for the stakes. Then the Juvenile stakes for three year olds, bred in the territories or Oregon, $50, half forfeit, $250 added, closed March 14 with fourteen nominations, was called. The starters were:

Vers broke on the first turn in the second heat, was run into by Peri, and Rice, behind Vera, was thrown from his sulky. He managed to get back to his seat and trotted serenely in a quarter of a mile or more behind Blondie.

Indian Tom, 110 lbs, unplaced.

There were no pools on Blondie's race. In the second Arlee was a cinch to judge from the pool box, and he ran a creditable second to the winner.

Fourth race, trotting and pacing, purse $2500, was won by Pomp after dropping the $500, was won by Pomp after dropping the second heat to Wallace G. and the fourth to Independent Frank.

SUMMARY. dent Frank, pacer....

Pomp was favorite in all the auction pools sold.

The free-for-all, purse $1,000, was won by Col. Bradshaw in three straight heats, after Conde had won the first heat. It was a hollow victory. There was nothing in the race that could make him extend himself. The trotting and skiving of the skates behind him amounted to nothing. Bradshaw was almost an even money favorite from the sale of the first pool until the start in the fourth heat. By the request of the owner of Conde, Mr. C. B Jeffries was very much provoked, and justly so in the minds of many people who are intimately acquainted with him, and who believe him an honest and honorable man in every sense and respect. Wm. Weiand drove a thoroughly skillful race and proved himself a past grand master of the ribbons.

SUMMARY.

Col. Bradshaw, b. g., 6, Messenger of the French Alert Dramatic city, and will return shortly, unless he strikes a good position, to take charge of the same.

Capt. J. W. Plummer returned from Meinstretening in that section. He is favorably impressed with the camp, and believes that with a railroad there every mine in the district could be made to pay. The Queen of the Hills, Galt and Molton lodes, he said, are well developed and in condition to knock down ore.

It is said that Raleigh & Clarke will occupy a portion of this building, but this is not definite and Mr. Bailey says no part of the building has yet been engaged and will not be until the stairways are built.

Schaffer & Read are rushed with work. They estimate that the building they have under way will foot up $350,000. They are busy on a number of fine residences. Among the list are one for Wm. H. Hunt, to cost about $7.500; the Power residence, to cost $40,000; Dr. Dean's, to cost about $8,000; E. W. Bach's, to cost $18,000, and several others.

Several others.

The crush of last week vividly illustrated the necessity for a large hotel. The transient population of Helena is perhaps greater than that of any other city in the west of equal population. Helena has more and finer hotels than any other town in Montana, excepting the Hotel Montana, which cost more, but is not better furnished than the Hotel Broadwater, and the fare cannot be better. At all seasons of the cannot be better. At all seasons of the year the Helena hotels are filled, but last week they were overcrowded, as well as every lodging house and available sleeping place. Three and four people were put in nearly every hotel room, and the parlors were also turned into eleging appartments. The turned into sleeping apartments. The visitors looked in vain for that new hotel, about which so much has been said during the past few months. It is not likely that
